

Preventing Harassment

How proactive is your organization in providing periodic, effective harassment prevention training to all employees? Based on US case law, organizations should provide anti-harassment every 12 - 24 months. This highly-interactive, 2.5 hour course will help you protect your employees from harassment and discrimination and ensure your organization is in compliance with the law.

Through case studies and role play demonstrations, you will learn:

- Specific requirements for employers to comply with various laws and regulations to protect people from harassment and discrimination.
- Requirements of an employers' policy and procedures that will help employers avoid liability for workplace harassment and discrimination.
- Requirements of an effective investigation when there has been a report of harassment or discrimination.
- How to ensure that people who express concerns about harassment or discrimination are not subjected to retaliation for expressing their concerns.

Led by counselor Russ Knight and retired HR manager Cheryl Forlines, this course offers valuable information to help employers provide a workplace that is free of harassment.

06/28/2018, Thursday 02:00PM - 04:30PM,

Register by phone: 803-325-2888

Register Online:

1. Click the "Register Online" button below, then click "Register and Pay for Continuing Education Classes."
2. Enter the course code XMGT-501 in the appropriate field and click submit.
3. Select the course you would like to register for and click submit.
4. Fill out your personal information, click submit, and then follow the on-screen instructions to complete payment. There is no charge for active Carolinas Chapter SHRM members. (2.5 hours of general credit applied for.) $39 cost for all others.

Register Online